IS NOW PREPARED

Russia Has Been Quietly Getting Ready.

Men Who Besmirched Old Glory to Suffer—Gov. Wright Takes Charge at Manila.

GOVERNOR TAFT IS SWORN IN

St. Petersburg, Feb. 2.—In spite of the expressed hope of the Russian authorities that the present crisis will be passed it is no longer concealed that Russia is practically prepared for even hostilities. Yesterday the mobilization of the Manchurian reserves was announced.

It has been well known for months that Russia has been steadily strengthening her army and navy in the far east. The available warships were dispatched to the far east and the last division which left the Mediterranean a month ago is now nearing its destination.

It is understood that six or seven military trains daily have been going east over the Siberian roads, and the charters of some ships' cargoes for the Pacific have been canceled because the water route was considered too slow.

The authorities now feel that the situation is secure should Japan reject Russia's proposition.

The draft of Russia's reply probably will be submitted to the czar tomorrow. The Associated Press is assured that it will be pacific and should "lead" to a settlement.

The Associated Press informant reiterated what he said a few days ago: "We have conceded much already and we are ready to concede more, but some things we cannot grant. From our standpoint the Manchurian question was settled by Russia's circular note to the powers recognizing all the Chinese treaties. Why should Japan demand more than the other powers?"

The Russian papers agree that treaty guarantees covering Manchuria and permission for Japan to fortify Southern Korea, making a closed sea of the Sea of Japan, are impossible.

WRIGHT IN CHARGE.

Manila, Feb. 2.—Governor Luke E. Wright was yesterday inaugurated, together with Vice Governor Henry C. Ide, by an imposing military demonstration of 3,000 troops. Governor Wright said the Taft administration was good enough for him and that he would endeavor to carry it out, and asked for the co-operation and assistance of all.

WILL PUNISH THEM.

Havana, Feb. 2.—The men who threw mud and filth on the United States flag at the consulate at Olenfuegos will be arrested and punished. This has been promised by President Palma, to whom complaint was made by Minister Squires.

NEW SECRETARY OF WAR.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—Governor Taft took the oath as secretary of war yesterday and is now discharging his duties. Governor Taft will make a trip to New York at once.

Mr. O. A. Lott and sister, Miss J. L. Lott, of New York, are in the city. Mr. Lott is manager for one of the biggest cash register companies for this territory.

DAMAGE BY FIRE

At Clarksville, Was Large and Will Amount to $150,000.

A Well known Attorney of Louisville Killed by a Wronged Husband Today.

LATE BEDFORD CLUE

Clarksville, Tenn., Feb. 2.—Fire in the dry goods store of L. O. Gerhart and son this morning destroyed the Gerhart store, the grocery of Weaver & McCauley, the furniture store of John F. Couts & Son and damaged the grocery of W. F. Russell. Stock of J. F. Hutcheson, a saloon-keeper, was badly damaged by water. Aggregate loss will reach $150,000, with insurance $100,000. Origin of the fire is not known. There were no casualties.

KILLING AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—James M. Shrader, until lately assistant commonwealth's attorney here, was shot at midnight in the Capitol Hotel on Market street by W. E. Neal, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., and died at 4 a. m. Neal surrendered.

He accused Shrader of intimacy with Mrs. Neal. All were boarding at the hotel. Mrs. Neal was the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Robinson, of Hopkinsville. She was a grass widow when, as Mrs. Nell R. Wood, she married Neal.

AN OVERCOAT CLUE.

Bedford, Ind., Feb. 2.—The officers and detectives in charge of the investigation of the murder of Miss Schaefer are paying particular attention to the theory that the murderer was well acquainted with Miss Schaefer. They believe he was familiar with the time she usually left her boarding house and the route traversed on her way to her room. The man most directly connected with this theory is prominent here, and it is alleged he had often held conversations with Miss Schaefer. He wears a long overcoat and answers to the description of the man seen by Albert Deitch at M and Fourteenth streets and by Walter Owen at L and Fourteenth streets, and by Mr. Mills crouching behind a tree across the street from the Johnson home. He left Bedford on the morning after the murder and remained away for several days. So far the detectives have failed to establish a motive for the crime.

NOTHING KNOWN

HERE BY THE STARRS ABOUT THAT IMMENSE FORTUNE.

The report that the Starrs here were interested in a $50,000,000 fortune supposed to belong to the Starr family from valuable property leased over 100 years ago to people in Baltimore, is not borne out by facts. Some time ago Mr. Joe Starr, of the county, who comes to market every day, was shown a clipping in regard to a concerted effort being made by the Starrs of Illinois to reclaim property leased for 99 years, about 1798 in Baltimore, and which should now revert to them. Mr. Starr said if his family were interested in it he did not know it, and that he had no relatives in Illinois, so far as he knew.

Mr. Starr will investigate the case, however. His ancestors came from the east about a century ago, and he may prove to be a direct descendant of those who owned the property.

BRYAN MAY NOT COME.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—On account of the death of his sister it is not believed that Mr. Bryan will fill his engagement here Wednesday. Bitter feeling has been aroused among the Democrats in Frankfort over Walter's attack upon Bryan, and especially on account of his reference to the Coebeck campaign.

A HARD WIND

In Colorado Wrecked a Passenger Train.

Considerable Damage By River at Louisville—Hickman Case Decided.

AN EDITOR IS PARALYZED

Idaho Springs, Col., Feb. 2.—A passenger train on the Colorado and Southern railroad for Georgetown was wrecked by a gale, three coaches and a baggage car and an express car being overturned and demolished.

Four of the crew and one passenger were injured. The list follows: J. K. Robinson, express messenger, Denver, ribs broken, internally injured; may die.

W. Straight, banker, Dunlap, Kan., hands and hip injured.

M. Smith, brakeman, Denver, wrist hurt and face badly cut.

Patrick Omor, conductor, head cut. A. Shurley, Denver, face and head bruised.

The train had come to a stop about 1600 feet from the station in Georgetown, being unable to proceed further because of the wind. While waiting for the gale to subside the cars were lifted from the rails by the wind and forced over on their sides.

BOAT HOUSE LOST.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 2.—It is thought the towboat Bellevue, which was sunk by the ice, will be a total loss. The swift current and cakes of ice made it impossible to get men to work in an effort to raise her. The houseboat of the Pastime Boat club was dislodged from her moorings and now lies bottom side up opposite Towhead island. The members of the Louisville Boat club are endeavoring to save their splendid home from wrecking. The weather has turned much colder and this will increase the flow of ice.

GETS HIS $2,000.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—Appellate court today affirmed the judgment of the Hickman circuit court in the case of the Illinois Central railroad vs. P. Jordan. He was a section foreman and was hurt in a collision. The lower court awarded him two thousand dollars and appellate court sustains it.

EDITOR STRICKEN.

Lagrange, Ky., Feb. 2.—W. W. "Book," Rowlett, the venerable editor and owner of the New Era, was stricken with paralysis last night and death is imminent.

MISS CROWE DEAD

WAS VISITING HER NIECE, MRS. AL BISHOP, ON NORTH FOURTH STREET.

Miss Mary Lou Crowe, aged 56, died at 10:05 o'clock this morning at the home of her niece, Mrs. Al Bishop, at Fourth and Harrison streets, after a ten days illness from typhoid pneumonia.

The deceased was born and reared at Paducah, Tenn., and raised Mrs. Bishop and the latter's brother. She and her brother, Captain James R. Crowe, a prominent hotel man of Sheffield, Ala., were the only surviving members of their immediate family.

Miss Crowe came to Paducah from her home in Pulaski two months ago to spend the winter with her niece and about two weeks ago became sick but was not thought to be dangerously ill yesterday when Mr. Al Bishop left on the Butterfield's regular trip. This morning she began rapidly sinking and soon expired.

Both Captain Crowe and Mr. Bishop have been notified and are expected as soon as possible. No funeral arrangements have been made, but it is practically certain that the remains will be taken to the home of the deceased, Pulaski, Tenn., for burial.

TO HAVE NEW LINE

The Cumberland Buys a Franchise at Smithland, Ky.

Will Begin Work on the New Line Early in the Spring and Rush to Finish.

GIVES A COMPLETE SERVICE

The Cumberland Telephone company has succeeded in getting into Smithland, Livingston county, and last night a franchise was granted by the town board and approved.

Mr. Charles Ritter, of Smithland, acted as agent for the Cumberland and Manager Joyner today received the news of his company's success. The franchise was bought for a very small amount and the people of Smithland seemed pleased to have the new company enter their town and bring competition in the long distance rates.

The Independent company, of Paducah, has been operating a line to Smithland for some months. Manager A. L. Joyner will begin building the new line which will be about twelve miles long, early in the spring, and it is expected to complete it in a few weeks.

When this line is complete it will give the Cumberland communication with practically every town and city in this section, in addition to all the large cities. As the company employs a large force of men and has an abundance of material, it is not believed that the construction of the new line will require long.

A COLD WAVE

Weather Bureau Sends Out a Warning This Afternoon.

Mister Ground Hog Certainly Saw His Shadow if He Looked Very Hard.

The weather bureau sent out two forecasts today for this section. The first was not so bad. The second came about noon, and was: "Cold wave tonight. Temperature will drop 30 degrees."

The day has been quite pleasant, but the wind shifted this morning and indicated colder weather.

If the ground hog came out in this section today he undoubtedly saw his shadow and retreated and will remain in for six weeks, as there has been a great deal of sunshine today. He is supposed to have made his appearance at noon.

LADIES' EDITION

EDITOR LEMON TURNS OVER THE PAPER TO THE LADIES FOR A DAY.

Says yesterday's Mayfield Messenger: The erstwhile proprietors of the Messenger will vacate their sanctum sanctorum tomorrow in favor of the "women only," the manager's wife and the editor's daughter who will take entire charge of the editorial and reportorial departments. They will edit tomorrow's edition without any assistance whatever, as they desire to show the people of Mayfield what a good newspaper really is, according to their standard.

We ask the readers' kindest consideration, but assure them they will read a fine paper, and show them what women know about a few things.

—Mr. Morris Bernheim, a son of Mr. I. W. Bernheim, formerly of Paducah, has been very ill of pneumonia at Louisville, but has passed the crisis and is now improving.

A QUICK CHANGE

Would-be Robbers Were Soon Staring into Gun Barrel.

Reported Safe Blowers at Thompson Stock Yards Last Night Early.

OTHER CITY HALL NOTES

Two men supposed to have been bent on robbery found themselves disagreeably surprised last night about 12 o'clock near Second and Court. Mr. Dave Stone had been in a restaurant and started home when he noticed that two strangers acted suspiciously. Finally they twisted and turned about corners until they overtook him again, and one of them coming up from behind said "Hold up."

Mr. Stone thought they were trying to rob him, and promptly "held up," but when he did he had a gun in his hand, and the two men, one of whom was almost a boy, were glad to get away. Mr. Stone followed them until he saw them enter a saloon and reported the affair to the police.

The men gave the names W. H. Booth and Charles Whitehouse at the city hall and one was suspected recently of setting fire to a saloon, but no incriminating evidence could be found against him.

Booth was given hours to leave the city, promising to do so at once and the other man was fined $5 and costs. The reason an attempted robbery charge could not have been made to stick is that they displayed no weapons.

In all probability they were drinking and were attempting to "moosh" Mr. Stone for a drink.

City Jailor Tom Everts had no difficulty getting breakfast for the prisoners today. His cook left him yesterday and he stated to the council last night that unless he found one this morning the prisoners would get no breakfast and the council ordered other arrangements made for feeding the prisoners if no cook was found. One was secured, however, and the male-factors in the city prison did not have to go hungry. Jailor Everts has been having trouble getting along on what he is paid. Despite the fact that the charter says that the lowest that can be paid the city jailer is $1500 a year the Paducah general council fixed his salary at $1320 a year, claiming that the charter is wrong and the Paducah officials are right, and City Jailor Everts now has a suit pending in circuit court to decide which is right, the charter or the general council.

Jake Mayfield, watchman at the Thompson stock yards, near Thirtieth and Caldwell, reported to Captain Joe Woods, of the police department last night that about 9:30 o'clock while making his rounds he heard a noise in the office and upon investigation found that two men had entered and succeeded in opening the outside doors of the big iron safe by working the combination, and were using a hammer but with no success, on the thinner steel doors inside. The men, according to his story, retreated into a back room, and when he ran in after them they both darted past him and escaped. He did not get a good look at them, but thinks one was white and the other a negro.

The men were probably tramps, and left the axe with which they attempted to break the iron doors.

Mr. H. G. Harnelling, the tailor, has heard nothing further from Charles Day, the deaf and dumb artist he intercepted at the train Saturday night and compelled to return a new $35 suit of clothes he had paid for with a worthless check. The man wrote when released that he would send the money and get the clothes as soon as possible.

The ordinance introduced last night increasing the fire department of Paducah two members will, according to the members of the two boards, enable

THE FIRST STEPS

Taken Towards Getting Ready for Spring Carnival.

A Merchants' Exhibit Will be a Feature, with No Charge to Merchants.

ANOTHER MEETING FRIDAY

Four of the directors of the Paducah Carnival Association held a meeting last night at Hotel Lagomarsino, Messrs. Lagomarsino, A. W. Greif and G. R. and R. C. Davis, but did nothing except discuss this year's carnival.

They will have an enclosed carnival, but will ask the merchants for nothing. They feel that the merchants have done enough in past years. They have now under advisement the matter of having this year another merchants' exhibit, but if they do it will be conducted along different lines from those heretofore a feature of carnivals. They will do this only for those enterprising merchants who desire to have exhibits, and every merchant who desires will be allowed to have a booth inside the grounds free of charge.

He may either build his own booth, or the carnival company will build it and require him to pay only what it costs, the exact figures to be given every merchant to show that he has paid only the actual cost of building the booth.

The attractions will come in for the usual amount of discussion later. Every year there are more and better carnival companies, and this year there are more than usual. It is expected that something new will be offered by the carnival company this year, and only a company able to give something new will stand any chance of getting the contract.

Nothing definite was done by the directors present last night, and they adjourned over until Friday in order that a larger attendance may be on hand. It is probable that on that evening officers will be elected and a secretary chosen. Last year Mr. H. C. Brownough was secretary.

The association is very enthusiastic over the outlook, and believes that the people will be ready for another week of fun about May, when they will feel like getting out and enjoying themselves after an "old time winter."

the city to establish the new fire station on the North Side. The appropriation about $17,000, has in the opinion of the members been made large enough for the increase.

HOME MISSION

GOOD WORK BEING DONE BY LOCAL ORGANIZATION.

The Home Mission Society of Broadway Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting at the parsonage yesterday afternoon. This is the last quarter for the year and it is the wish of the society to have a good report for the annual meeting in March. One half of the dues of this society goes towards aiding pastors of small churches where the income is not sufficient for their support and toward church building. The other half is expended in educational work in the mountains, in Cuba, in California, and among the negroes and Indians. Each year shows decided improvement in the different departments.

The Auxiliary of Broadway church has thirty-three members, who are "lending a hand" in this great work.

WHERE FUNDS GO

It is Estimated Legislature Will Appropriate Over a Million

Many Bills For Big Appropriations Are Still in the Hands of Committees.

NEW CAPITOL SITE WANTED

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2—Now that the committees have returned from their investigation of the needs of the various state institutions, it is possible to form an idea of the extent of appropriations to be made by this legislature. Already bills appropriating $1,000,000 have passed both houses, while other bills carrying appropriations aggregating $74,000 have passed one of the houses. The list thus far is as follows:

Through both houses—
State capitol appropriation $1,000,000
Kentucky children's home society, annually,	15,000
World's fair appropriation	75,000
Through the senate—
Geological survey, annually,	15,000
Boonesboro monument	2,000
Through the house—
Confederate home improvements	57,000
Total,	$1,164,000

There are now pending in the hands of committees bills calling for additional appropriations aggregating probably $1,000,000, but it is reasonably certain that in addition to the amounts included in the foregoing table not more than a quarter of a million dollars will be appropriated, making the total appropriations less than a million and a half dollars. The state already has nearly that amount of money in the treasury and as a large part of the appropriations will not be spent until next year or the year after, and as the state's revenues are more than are required by the regular expenses, the state would not be run into debt.

It is generally agreed that it will be necessary to appropriate $75,000 for additions to the Hopkinsville asylum in order to relieve the congested condition of the two larger asylums at Lakeland and Lexington.

It is agreed that an appropriation of $5,000 should be made for a hospital ward for consumptives at Eddyville.

The A. and M. college at Lexington is asking for an appropriation of about $150,000, but certainly not more than half that amount will be allowed.

There are numerous bills providing for increases in salaries, but even if a few of them should pass it would not materially affect the general estimate.

Within a few days a new capitol bill will probably be introduced, its object being to repeal that section of the new law which requires the erection of the capitol on the present site, as provided by the Guffy amendment. Many of the members desire to preserve the historic old statehouse, which is regarded as a fine old specimen of architecture. Besides, some of the members think that the new building should have a handsomer site, probably on the slope of one of the picturesque hills at the edge of the city.

PLEASANT AND MOST EFFECTIVE.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes December 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. BITTEN BY DOG

MAN FROM MISSOURI COMES HERE TO BE SHOWN.

L. D. Deen, of Southwest Missouri, arrived last night from Cairo to have Mr. Frank Mantz' maststone applied to a wound in his right leg. He was bitten a day or two ago at Cairo by a dog supposed to be mad, and came here to have the stone applied in order to ease his mind. The wound is not serious. Mr. Deen is about 35 years old, and works at Cairo.

HAS A CHANCE

Hon. Jas. A. Rose Will Develop Strength.

Well Known Republican Politician Will Have Support of Southern Illinois.

WILL HAVE NO MANAGER

A Springfield, Ill., despatch to the St. Louis Globe Democrat indicates that Hon. James A. Rose, the politician from Golconda and father of Mrs. Jas. Smith, of Paducah, will cut a prominent figure in the gubernatorial campaign in Illinois.

Among other things it says:

Ever since the first mention of his name in connection with the governorship some months ago other candidates have reckoned on the probability of his entering the race, all of them realizing that upon his entry he would at once become an important factor. Now that he is actually in it is generally admitted that the situation in southern Illinois will undergo a material change.

For twenty years "Egyptian" politicians have been acquainted with "Jim" Rose. He has been a resident of Golconda, Pope county, all his life. He was only 17 when he became a county school teacher. At 21 he was made principal of the Golconda schools, and a year later he was elected superintendent of schools of Pope county. Then he was admitted to the bar and without opposition was elected state's attorney of his county. He held the office a couple of terms, refusing a third. In 1889 Gov. Effer made him one of the trustees of the Pontiac reformatory, and a year later transferred him to the board of commissioners of the Chester penitentiary. He was elected secretary of state in 1896 and re-elected in 1900. He is best known, of course, in connection with the latter office, in which he has made a good record.

Thus, it will be seen, his political career has been successful. Every contest in which he has been engaged has demonstrated his strong hold on his section of the state. He is among the best examples of the "Egyptian" politician—suave, sagacious, practical.

Of course nobody expects the secretary of state to go to the convention with enough delegates to nominate him on the first ballot. No candidate will do so well as that, but he will secure a large number of counties in southern Illinois whose delegates will stick loyally to him. His own congressional district, with the possible exception of one or two counties, will be solid for him. This is the 24th district, and is composed of the counties of Clay, Edwards, Gallatin, Hamilton, Hardin, Johnson, Massac, Pope, Saline, Wayne and White. In the two adjoining districts (the 23d and 25th) there are eighteen counties, and he is sure to get some of these. In the central and northern parts of the state he is not likely to get any instructed delegates, but he has influential friends in all of them, and to many of the delegates from these counties, beyond doubt Rose will be acceptable as a second choice.

Mr. Rose will conduct his campaign entirely from Springfield. He will not open Chicago headquarters at all. Nor will he have any "manager," preferring personally to supervise the details of his campaign work.

FIVE THOUSAND DIALECTS SPOKEN.

Over 5,000 distinct languages are spoken among men. A calculating prodigy would be wanted to compute with exactness how many separate dialects are in use. Sixty years ago it was reckoned that 60 different vocabularies were to be found in Brazil, but the actual number must be far greater, for in much smaller Mexico the Nahuatl language is broken up into 700 dialects. There are hundreds in Borneo. In Australia there is no classifying the complexities. And generally the number of dialects is in inverse proportion to the intellectual culture of the population. Assume that only 50 dialects on an average belong to every language, and we have the colossal total of a quarter of a million linguistic varieties. In this babel the battle is incessant.

FROM SAN DOMINGO

MR. C. T. BENNER IS JUST BACK FROM THE REVOLUTIONARY ISLE.

Mr. C. T. Benner has returned from a trip to San Domingo, the island where there is a revolution every few hours, and reports that everything is in a somewhat confused state, but there is little danger to American interests.

Mr. Benner left some little time ago for San Domingo to represent a big St. Louis concern which has extensive interests there, and wanted a good man to go and look over the ground to ascertain the exact situation. Mr. Benner having experienced many years in South America and the islands of the surrounding ocean, was selected as a good man for the mission, and left Paducah several weeks ago, accomplishing his mission without accident.

He saw the heads of both parties, the successful one and those that are constantly looking for trouble, and had no difficulty in making friends with all of them.

Mr. Benner thinks San Domingo has a bright future, and that American interests are reasonably safe there at present. He is quite well known here, and returned about two years ago from Brazil, and for a time was in the grocery business at Sixth and Trimble streets.

FREE FACE BLEACH FOR COMPLEXION

I WILL SEND FREE TRIAL BOTTLE OF MY FACE BLEACH TO ANY LADY SENDING NAME AND ADDRESS.

MME. A. RUPPERT, 6 E 14TH ST., New York City

How to Obtain a Lovely COMPLEXION

Clear and Beautiful

It is every woman's duty to be as youthful and good looking as possible, and there is nothing which adds more beauty than a lovely complexion, and there is no remedy which will restore the complexion and give one that youthful appearance like Mme. A. Ruppert's World Renowned Face Bleach. This grand remedy clears the skin of every discoloration, and impurity, including pimples, freckles, moth patches, brown spots, liver marks, comedones, flesh worms, blackheads, oiliness, sallowness, muddiness and skin diseases. It accomplishes these wonderful effects by drawing the impurities and discolorations to the surface of the skin and then removing these blemishes by gradually sealing off a slight surface of the outer scarf skin. It does this in so natural a manner as to be entirely harmless to the most delicate complexion, and, having this action, it cannot fail to produce excellent effects.

Most marvelous results are obtained when Face Bleach is used according to my new Special Directions in conjunction with my Egyptian Balm, which nourishes and feeds the tissues and glands of the skin, and adds the blushing touch which retines, purifies and preserves the skin in its pristine splendor, giving it the glow of youth.

Now, in order that every lady reader of this paper may obtain the highest possible effect from the use of my preparations, I will make the following stupendous offer to all readers at the below address. A bottle of my Face Bleach, a trial jar of my Egyptian Balm, a bar of my most exquisite Almond Oil Complexion Soap, my New Special Directions, my book, "How to be Beautiful," all for $2. The price of Face Bleach alone is $2 per bottle, hence you receive articles absolutely free.

THE GENEROUS LION.

Find Another Man.

A lion, having pulled down a Bullock, stood over it, lashing his sides with his tail. A robber who was passing by stopped, and impudently demanded half shares. "You are always too ready to take what does not belong to you," answered the Lion. "Go your way: I have nothing to say to you." The Thief saw that the Lion was not to be trifled with, and went off. Just then a Traveler came up, and, seeing the Lion, modestly and timorously withdrew. The generous beast, with a courteous, affable air, called him forward, and, dividing the Bullock in halves, told the man to take one, and, in order that he might be under no restraint, carried his own portion away into the forest.

—The automatic gate question will come up again tonight before the joint committee of the general council which postponed action Friday night. Since the workings of automatic gates have been more fully explained, some members of the board do not appear to be in favor of them.

A Fatal Shooting Near Barbourville, Ky.

Dog Saved a Family at Covington—Mr. John W. Rives Dies at Mayfield.

SOME NEW CORPORATIONS

Barbourville, Ky., Feb. 2.—In a fight at Wilton, a mining town near here, Deputy Sheriff Mat Helton shot and killed Dan and Tom Fletcher and fatally wounded a man named Brock. Helton, accompanied by his brother Frank, attempted to serve a writ on Dan Fletcher and was invited into the latter's house. Frank had had previous trouble with the Fletchers and was ordered out of the house. This caused the trouble. Brock is shot through the head. The Heltons have fled.

COURT AT MADISONVILLE.

Madisonville, Ky., Feb. 2.—Circuit court is in session with Judge J. F. Gordon on the bench and Commonwealth's Attorney John L. Gray on present. There is a large docket of criminal cases, the most important being the J. B. Lindell case on a charge of wilful murder. He and Elmer Witherspoon are charged with the murder of young Jesse Burton at Earlinton on July 4, 1903. There are about 200 witnesses in the case.

CHILD'S HORRIBLE FATE.

Owingsville, Ky., Feb. 2.—Near Jody, this county, Mrs. Harrison Conn left her eighteen months old child in a chair in front of an open fire while she went into another room. She was gone some time, and when she returned the child was dying. Fire had popped onto its clothing and the upper part of its body was literally cooked, one ear being burned entirely off. The child lived only a short time.

DEATH AT MAYFIELD.

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 2.—Mr. John W. Rives died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. B. F. Briggs, age 85. He had been almost helpless for a long time and the death had been expected. Mr. Rives leaves two children, Mr. S. A. Rives, Prague, Okla., and Mrs. B. F. Briggs, of this city.

He moved to Graves county in 1850 and settled west of the city.

SAVED BY A DOG.

Covington, Ky., Feb. 2.—A barking terrier dog prevented a holocaust, saving four families. A double frame house on Blackwell street, caught fire and all the inmates were soundly asleep when Edward Finn was awakened by the barking dog. He smelled smoke and gave the alarm.

JANUARY CORPORATIONS.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—During January 71 companies, with capital stock aggregating $1,499,600, filed articles of incorporation in Kentucky. The companies paid in in organization tax to the state treasury the sum of $1,499.60.

FULTON MAN TO WED.

Fulton, Ky., Feb. 2.—Cards are out announcing the approaching nuptials of Dr. Seiden Cohn of Fulton, to Miss Blanche Bernstein of Newport, Ark., on the 15th of February.

Freight Struck a Work Train at Dawson.

One Man Hurt By Jumping—Increase in Machinists at Shops Expected.

Freight train No. 195 struck extra work train, engine No. 1499 at Dawson yesterday afternoon and turned the freight engine No. 1712 over and burned the caboose of the work train. Fireman Melton had an ankle sprained in jumping from the engine. No other injuries are reported but the damage to the engine and trains will amount to a great deal.

The machinists who were laid off during the out at the local I. C. shops at the beginning of winter, have gone to all parts of the country and it is thought the local shops will have a hard time getting a full force of machinists this summer when the big increase in forces is made. The order increasing the force to the full summer capacity will come about March 1 in less than a month, it is thought, this being the regular time for making the order.

MARRIED YESTERDAY.

Mr. Edward Barrett, of Paducah, and Miss Willie Davis, of Calvert City, were married yesterday afternoon at the New Richmond Hotel, Rev. G. W. Perryman officiating. They will reside on the North side, in Paducah.

BROTHERS MEET

At the I. C. Shops for the First time in 24 Years.

One Had Been Working in Mexico for Many Years.

Mr. Joe Waters, a pipe fitter employed in the local I. C. shops, met his brother, Mr. Will Waters, yesterday for the first time in 24 years. The latter had been working in Mexico at the boiler maker trade and learning his brother was working in the local I. C. shops, came through Paducah en route east. He was walking through the tin department yesterday looking for his relative when he came across Foreman Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler remarked to his pipe fitter that he had seen a man who looked exactly like him and an investigation revealed the fact that it was Mr. Waters' brother.

They were of course very glad to see each other and the unexpected meeting was soon the talk of the entire shops.

WOUND MAY PROVE FATAL.

Olive Hill, Ky., Feb. 2.—Ryan Darby and Cleveland Osenton engaged in a difficulty here resulting in Osenton striking Darby in the forehead with a large stone, inflicting a serious if not fatal wound. Osenton claims self-defense.

The Clyde has arrived from Tennessee river.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"No man can live a true, full life within boundaries that can be measured by human hands. He needs to get beyond himself; he must reach out after the infinite; he must lift himself up toward the eternal."

LOST IN THE CROWD.

Possibly people in other cities will find something familiar in the picture of Louisville thus painted by a minister there Sunday. He said:

"About half the laws of Louisville are so dead that they are a stench in the nostrils of decent citizens. One of them is the law against gambling. Another is the law against selling liquor on the Sabbath.

"If you go to the police and ask them why the law against gambling is not enforced, they will tell you it is none of their business, and refer you to their chief. If you go to the chief, he will tell you he gets his orders from the board of public safety. And if you go to one of them, they refer to another member of the board.

"If you ask his honor, the mayor, why gambling is allowed he will tell you he is entirely unaware of it. If you go to the prosecuting attorney, he will tell you to bring your evidence and if it's good he'll see what he can do for you.

"In other words, you, as citizens and taxpayers, are giving these men fat salaries, and they expect you to do the work."

Then, as to the causes, he said: "Why are these things so? Because the individual is lost in the crowd. This is the tendency of the modern city—to submerge the individual civic consciousness, to make men say: 'It is none of my business. Let others attend to it.' They are afraid of political or financial hurt if they stand up for the right, afraid they may lose a few customers. They cry of the modern city is the cry of Cain—'Am I my brother's keeper?' you ask. 'Why should I risk my trade or my professional standing in an effort to stop these shames? Let others attend to it. It is none of my business.' The civic consciousness, the sense of duty, is lost in the crowd."

A rural free delivery carrier, writing to a Louisville paper, claims that in five years the carriers earn $3,000 at $600 a year and have to spend $2,352.50 leaving the net earnings $647.50 for the five years or $129.50 a year, or $10.80 a month. Here is the way he figures it: Two horses, $100 each, $200; feed, $10 per month, five years, $600; mail wagon, costs $75 and lasts

Take KODOL for Dyspepsia

Sour Stomach
Tired Stomach
Weak Stomach
Puffed Stomach
Nervous Stomach
Gas on Stomach
Catarrh of the Stomach
and all other
symptoms of Indigestion

Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. It is caused by indigestion.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. First comes slight indigestion, then repeated attacks of indigestion, and if something is not done the symptoms mentioned on the left follow in about the order named. Some of these symptoms may not be experienced, while heartburn, headache, constipation and many others may be, but chronic dyspepsia and finally Catarrh of the Stomach is certain to be the result if the proper treatment is not resorted to. KODOL relieves inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and enables the glands to secrete the natural juices of digestion. Its use enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of rich, red blood that makes health, strength, tissue, brain, brawn and bone.

Douglasville, Ga., May 17, 1902.
I have been traveling for nearly two years and have suffered very badly from indigestion and dyspepsia. I tried several physicians and all kinds of patent medicines, but Kodol is the first and only remedy that has done me any good whatever; now I have only used two small bottles and to my surprise it has cured me sound and well.—B. W. WATKINS.

"Kodol Digests What You Eat"

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Ray, establish it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease in itself, but that it is a condition resulting from repeated attacks of indigestion.

The stomach and alimentary canal, or digestive tract, is lined or coated with a mucous membrane. Studding the surface of this mucous membrane are the gastric glands. Here, also, are the terminal branches of the pneumogastric nerves, and many branches from the sympathetic system.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

SONGS OF THE DAY.

FEBRUARY.

The laggard sun, on frosty morn,
Throws long beams through the stub-
ble corn,
Against the sunset, naked trees
Weave magic brides and tresses.
From woodman's ax the splinter
bonds;
The flicker's cherry tapping sounds;
Ice thaws, and in the quickening flood
Are vague, fond hopes of leaf and bud,
When, lo! like flock of living sky—
Full-souged, a blue bird sweet flits
by!

MEETING TO END

TONIGHT MAY BE LAST OF BAPTIST REVIVAL.

Evangelist Ham at the First Baptist church will speak tonight on "The Building-up of the Christian." The meeting will probably close this evening. Much good has been done during the three weeks' work of Mr.
Ham in this city. There have been something over 150 conversions and his subject tonight will be of especial interest to them.

THE FATAL GRATE FIRE.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—Mrs.
John Lancaster, a pretty young woman, twenty-eight years of age,
who is the mother of three children,
was perhaps fatally burned at her home in the county. She was standing in front of an open fire when her dress blew into the flames and ignited.
Before the flames could be extinguished her clothes had been burned
off and her flesh burned almost to a crisp.

HAND PAINFULLY HURT.

May Skillian, an employee of the basket factory in Mechanicsburg, got her left hand caught in a machine this morning and the member was badly skinned and bruised. The injury is not serious, however. The hand was dressed by Dr. J. S. Troutman.

In spite of Dowie's predictions that Zion would be out of debt by yesterday there is still a heavy indebtedness
hanging over the place.

IN THE COURTS

Suit Against Telegraph Company in Circuit Court.

Judge Sanders Had a Brief Docket
This Morning.

CIRCUIT COURT.

At press time the case of E. W.
Pratt against the Postal Telegraph and Cable company was on trial.

The plaintiff sues for $2,000 damages in the failure of the defendant to deliver a message apprising him of a brother's death until too late to be able to attend the funeral.

Mr. Lawrence Leopold, of Louisville, the company attorney, was sworn in as an attorney at the local bar and assisted in conducting the case
for the defense.

A motion was entered by the defendants in the case of W. A. Usher against A. L. Williams and others to set aside the judgment.

The case of the Palmer Transfer company against the Paducah City Railway company was by agreement
continued.

This morning in circuit court Judge
Wm. Reed decided that the Rehkopf injunction suit which was yesterday
left open until Friday, be tried by adjudication. This was the one point in dispute yesterday and the court gave
the attorneys until Friday to prepare for the case.

POLICE COURT.

W. T. and W. D. Matlock, strangers, created a disturbance at the Palmer house last night by trying to ride
up in the elevator after they had been refused lodging. They were drunk and Clerk Raser went after them, but W. D. Matlock pulled a pistol. They were arrested and this morning one
was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk and the other $25 and costs and ten days in jail for carrying concealed a deadly weapon. The latter took an appeal and was released on bond.

A breach of the peace case against Jesse Pearson and Olive Rogers was dismissed, there not being sufficient evidence.

Frank Minor, colored, was fined $25
for a breach of the peace.

A case against Theobald Peters for violating the Sabbath was left open.
A man swears that he bought a bottle of whiskey at Peter's, and Mr. Peters swears that he didn't and that he sold nothing Sunday.

W. H. Booth and Charles Whitehouse were charged with disorderly conduct and Booth was ordered to leave town and the other was fined $5
and costs.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

Ahram M. McClure, of Fulton, filed a petition in bankruptcy this morning giving liabilities to the amount of $600 with no assets. He owes no Paducah parties, the debts
being contracted in Hickman, principally.

The Sun's Offer to Give Them
Away to Boys Creates Interest

Many Youngsters Are Already at Work to Get One.

The announcement of The Sun's purchase of one hundred watches of Mr. J. L. Wolff, the Jeweler, to be given away to the boys of Paducah for subscribers to The Sun has created excitement among the youngsters of the city and a host of them are already at
work to get one.

The Sun's offer is as follows:
For 10 subscribers for one month or
For 4 subscribers for six months, or
For 2 subscribers for one year

The Sun will give one of these watches. The subscribers must be people who are not at present taking
The Sun and must be paid for in advance.

The watches are on display in one of Mr. Wolff's windows. They are excellent time pieces and have been,
and are sold today, by Mr. Wolff for $17.5. The Sun intends to give them away to the boys for a little while
and there is not a boy in Paducah who,
if he wants a watch and will work a few hours in the afternoon after school
can not get one.

Below is a cut of the watch.

AN OLD TIMER

Capt. James Pell is Still Active
at 72.

Will Take the Bob Blanks to Her
Owners at Monroe,
Louisiana.

RAN ON THE BOAT. E. LEE

The new boat Bob Blanks is shortly to pass Paducah on her way from Louisville to her owners at Monroe, La.
Captain James Pell, who is well known among local river men, will be in charge, and the following from yesterday's Courier Journal will be of interest here:

Captain James Pell, one of the most widely known and picturesque characters on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, was in Louisville last night, and
today will leave to carry the new boat
Bob Blanks to its owners in Monroe,
La. Captain Pell is 72 years old, and 50 years ago he marked his advent to the cult of river men just as Mark Twain was retiring from the character
about which he wrote romance and traditions which will haunt the river as long as it is dotted with steamboats.
In the old days Captain Pell was the pilot of the Robert E. Lee, whose matchless race from New Orleans to St. Louis in four days and six hours stood as the record among her contemporaries.

"The Robert E. Lee was never beaten," said Captain Pell last night, and he is the man who steered the race
against the Natchez in which the time
was made. "In those days," continued the old man of the river, "we burned more wood than coal, and when it came to the test, the firemen
did not care if he heaped in the pine knots and turpentine cans so freely
that it endangered his own life and that of the crew. It is not what most men think to stand at the wheel and know that it is luck if the boat is not blown into Kingdom Come the next minute, but in my young days I cared
as little for such things as any man
among us. I was proud of the Lee,
yes, and I ran on her, making Louisville my home, until she was worn out. I then brought her to Louisville and she was rebuilt. The new Lee was burned to the water's edge and that ended the name and the life of the most famous boat that ever plowed
the Mississippi and Ohio rivers. The Lee ran to Louisville, when it was not cotton time, and after I left her I went to Clucianati and I live there
now."

WELL POSTED

A CALIFORNIA DOCTOR WITH 40 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

"In my 40 years' experience as a teacher and practitioner along hygienic lines" says a Los Angeles physician "I have never found a food to compare with Grape Nuts for the benefit of the general health of all classes of people. I have recommended Grape Nuts for a number of years to patients with the greatest success and every year's experience makes me more enthusiastic regarding its use.

"I make it a rule to always recommend Grape Nuts and Postum Food Coffee in place of coffee when giving my patients instructions as to diet for I know both Grape Nuts and Postum can be digested by anyone.

"As for myself, when engaged in much mental work my diet twice a day consists of Grape Nuts and rich cream. I find it just the thing to build up gray matter and keep the brain in good working order.

"In addition to its wonderful effects as a brain and nerve food Grape Nuts always keeps the digestive organs in perfect, healthy tone. I carry it with me when I travel, otherwise I am almost certain to have trouble with my stomach." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Strong endorsements like the above from physicians all over the country have stamped Grape Nuts the most scientific food in the world.

There's a reason. Look in each package for the famous title book, "The Road to Wellville."

MR. JUSTICE FINNEMORE

Judge of the Natal Supreme Court, Sends the Following Remarkable Testimonial

TO CUTICURA

The World Is Cuticura's Field, Used Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated.

"I desire to give my voluntary testimony to the beneficial effects of your Cuticura Remedies. I have suffered for some time from an excess of uric acid in the blood; and since the middle of last year, from a severe attack of Eczema, chiefly on the scalp, face, ears and neck and on one limb. I was for several months under professional treatments, but the remedies prescribed were of no avail, and I was gradually becoming worse, my face was dreadfully disfigured and I lost nearly all my hair. At last, my wife prevailed upon me to try the Cuticura Remedies and I gave them a thorough trial with the most satisfactory results. The disease soon began to disappear and my hair commenced to grow again. A fresh growth of hair is covering my head, and my limb (although not yet quite cured) is gradually improving. My wife thinks so highly of your remedies that she has been purchasing them in order to make presents to other persons suffering from similar complaints, and, as President of the Bible Women's Society, has told the Bible women to report if any case should come under their notice when a poor person is so afflicted, so that your remedies may be resorted to."

ROBERT ISAAC FINNEMORE, (Judge of the Natal Supreme Court) Pietermaritzburg, Natal, Oct. 29, 1901.

NEW GAME LAWS

Quail Cannot be Killed for Two Years, if Bill Passes.

The Measure Also Provides for a Game Warden and for Hunters' License.

If a bill now before the legislature passes, quail cannot be killed in Kentucky for two years.

While this might be hard on sportsmen in many parts of the state it would not be here, as local hunters do most of their hunting in Tennessee and Illinois.

Of the bill a Frankfort dispatch says:

The sportsmen of Kentucky have at last framed a series of laws that are expected to protect the fish and game of the State. By natural conditions Kentucky is specially adapted to the propagation of fish and game, yet in no State has there been more wanton destruction of both. The new measures for their protection were introduced in the House by Representative R. W. Miller, of Madison county.

Provision is made against the killing of quail for two years, in which time the birds may multiply without interference. Another of the bills creates the office of Fish and Game Warden, with power to appoint a Deputy Warden in every county in the state. A gun license for non-residents is imposed, as well as a small license from the hunters of this state, which with the fines and forfeitures will provide a fund sufficient to pay the salary of the Warden and all the expenses of the office. County courts are also given jurisdiction, which will result in a better enforcement of the laws.

TWO NEW FIREMEN

Provided for in a New Ordinance Introduced.

Jailer Evitts is not Satisfied Because of Imposition on Him

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

The council met in regular session last night with all members present. Councilmen Smedley and Hymarsh being excused the latter part of the meeting.

Attorney J. C. Flournoy reported to the board that he had completed the work of revising city ordinances and was ready to have his work inspected. Chairman Hannan appointed the chairman of the finance committee of both boards, in conjunction with the city solicitor, to go over the ordinances. The chairman will be paid $2 per day for this work, as it will require some little time.

The matter of looking up the title to an alley near Mr. George Ripley's residence on South Third street was referred. The alley has been closed partially against the objections of abutting property owners who hold it a public alley.

The matter of Attorney J. C. Flournoy's offer to collect the pole license tax from the telephone and telegraph companies for half was brought up. The city ordinance provides that the telephone and telegraph companies shall pay $1 per pole but the federal court granted an injunction restraining the city from collecting this tax. Attorney Flournoy agrees to take nothing if he does not succeed in collecting and the matter was referred to the finance committee.

Jailer Tom Evitts addressed the council and stated that he was not getting enough salary, and was moreover doing two men's work, his deputy jailer having been taken away from the city hall and worked on the streets by other officials. He stated he received last month $110 salary and out of this had to buy a cooking stove, employ a cook and furnish fuel, leaving him about $55 per month. His cook quit, leaving the work on the hands of the jailer's wife, and Jailer Evitts stated he did not intend to take any further steps towards furnishing meals to the prisoners unless some better arrangements are made. The council voted to pay for the stove and fuel and cook and also to make provisions for increasing Mr. Evitts' remuneration.

The finance report, showing collections amounting to $21,666.28, expenditures $5,046.38 with a balance of $16,620.60, was presented and filed.

Mr. William Krans, formerly city treasurer, was granted a quietus in full.

City accounts amounting to $6,064.46 were presented and allowed.

The board gave the pool room ordinance first passage. It has been finally passed by the upper board.

The ordinance providing for curbing Jefferson street from Fountain avenue to Third street, was given second passage.

The ordinance providing for concrete sidewalks, curbs and gutters on Jefferson from 14th to 17th streets, was given second passage.

The water company was ordered to extend its mains to Bockmon street, the requisite number of property owners having subscribed.

The matter of placing a street light at Harrison and 17th streets was referred.

The public improvement committee was ordered to make repairs and improvements in City Clerk Henry Bailey's office, and also to put in larger electric lights in the city hall building.

An ordinance regulating the fire department was given first passage. It provided that the department shall consist of one chief, two captains and 16 stationmen, an increase of two stationmen. The chief shall have his salary fixed by the commissioners while the captains shall receive $800 per annum and the stationmen $720. The captains at present receive $720 and the stationmen $600 per annum.

The following liquor licenses were granted: Conrad Boyer, 1240 Clay street; Evansville Brewing Co., 321 Monroe, beer license; George Detzel, 113 North Fourth; the transfer of license of J. R. Turner from Ninth and Boyd to 12th and Madison streets, was ordered held up.

Deeds to lots in Oak Grove cemetery were ratified.

Mayor Yeiser stated that the railroad shop bonds drawing 5 per cent interest and amounting to $20,000, had matured and were now drawing 6 per cent interest, the extra 1 per cent being charged for carrying them. He recommended that they be refunded at the old rate of 5 per cent, and the matter was referred to the finance committee.

The reports of Milk and Meat Inspector H. H. Duley and Sewer Inspector L. P. Kasor were presented, received and filed.

An order on Lang Bros. for 100 ounces of concentrated formaldehyde, with generators, issued by the board of health, was referred.

Solicitor Poryear reported that he had received a letter from Mayor Combs, of Lexington, saying he would lend aid in having charter amendments to cities of the second class passed. Solicitor Poryear also stated that on account of being now to his duties as city solicitor, might need legal aid in handling suits pending against the city and the matter was referred to the finance committee with instructions to employ legal aid if deemed necessary.

Contractor John Lane, who holds the contract for building the concrete culvert on West Jefferson street, presented his bond which was ordered accepted when he signed the contract.

On motion of Councilman George Ingram the ordinance committee was ordered to draft an ordinance abolishing the office of license inspector.

A remonstrance from property owners near 11th and Tennessee streets was filed against any saloon license that might be applied for at that corner. It is understood a saloon man proposes applying for such a license and the remonstrance was filed for reference.

On motion the board adjourned.

LEAVES FOR TEXAS

MR. GUS BURNETT AND FAMILY GO TONIGHT OR TOMORROW.

Mr. Gus Burnett, of Ballard county, former owner of the celebrated pacer, Sir Edwin Arnold, is here preparing to go to Dallas, Tex., to locate. He and his family, after a brief visit to relatives in Paducah leave tonight or tomorrow for the Lone Star state to reside. Mr. Burnett has not decided in what business he will embark.

TO WED MONDAY.

The marriage of Miss Mary Hannan and Mr. J. Wes Reed will take place next Monday afternoon at the home of the bride, 1102 Burnett street. The young lady is popular and attractive and is the daughter of a well known steamboat man, and Mr. Reed is a popular plumber at the Ed Hannan establishment.

A LONG- FELT WANT

IT IS SUPPLIED AT LAST IN PADUCAH.

Good natured people are often irritable.

If you knew the reason you would not be surprised.

Ever have itching piles?

Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content.

The constant itching sensation.

Hard to bear; harder to get relief.

Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy.

Isn't relief and cure a long felt want.

You can have relief and cure if you will follow the advice of a local citizen.

J. R. Womble, of 1005 South Fourth street, carpenter by trade, says: "For six years itching hemorrhoids were the bane of my existence. During the day when overheated I suffered and at night my rest was disturbed. I tried everything which I read or which friends and acquaintances advised me to try, still the hemorrhoids existed. The first application of Doan's Ointment procured at DuBois & Co's drug store gave me relief. After the second day's treatment I slept the succeeding night like a child. It is nearly three months since I stopped the use of Doan's Ointment and there has been no sign of a return. This should leave no doubt in the minds of Paducah people about the merits claimed for that preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup

An Ideal Family Medicine

When any member of the family begins to droop, loses appetite and shows signs of failing strength, you know that it means some disorder of the liver, kidneys, stomach, bowels or blood, and that a long, serious illness, much suffering and big doctors' bills are sure to follow unless some preventive is used at once.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup—"The Road to Good Health"—is the greatest safeguard you can provide for the health of your family. It combines those qualities sought in an ideal family medicine—a pure liver regulator, the best kidney medicine, a perfect blood purifier and a powerful tonic. It does not help one organ at the expense of another, but regulates and strengthens all and causes them to act in perfect harmony.

Physicians recommend and prescribe it for disorders of the liver, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, kidney trouble, dropsy, catarrh, rheumatism, blood and skin diseases; while thousands of families have no other doctor.

MR. LEE DEAN, Antioch, I. T., says in a recent letter: "This is to let you know that we have used your Liver and Blood Syrup in our family for the past two years and it is our only medicine and doctor."

W. S. GRAY, an aged citizen of Grayson, Ala., writes: "I find that your medicine is pure, gentle, efficacious and inexpensive. It is good for the children, excellent for ladies, convenient for business men. It stands ahead of all the medicine made and is the cheapest that one can buy."

Gentle and thorough in its action, it is as good for the children as it is for grown folks. Just a small dose each day when you don't feel well will cleanse your system of all impurities, fortify it against disease and fill you with a vim and vigor before unknown.

Ask your dealer for it today. Dry form 25 cents. Liquid form 50 cents and $1.00. Send us two-cent stamp for sample bottle and write our Consultation Department for free, confidential advice.

THACHER MEDICINE COMPANY,

Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Theatrical Notes.

"The Gambler's Wife" was presented at the Kentucky last night by the Howard-Dorset company by one of the largest audiences of the season, and the bill proved to be one of the best in the repertory of this high class company. The characters were well portrayed and the play was one brimful of interest. Mr. Howard and Miss Dorset and their capable company have broken the season's record at the Kentucky and will continue to have large crowds every evening they play. The specialties cannot be too highly commended. They are not the usual tame affairs, but every one of them is new and up-to-date. The moving pictures are decidedly the best ever seen in Paducah and, the illustrated songs, both the latter being given by the Tennants, are also first class.

The big musical comedy success, "The Chaperons," by Isidore Wit-

mark and Frederick Rankin is to be presented in this city Feb. 20. The organization numbers sixty people and embraces the service of many well known comedians, singers and dancers. The production is an elaborate and handsome one and in every way equals its presentation in New York two seasons ago.

Miss Dorothy Sherrod heads the list of women supporting Mr. Murphy. Other capable members of the unusually large company are Florence Davis, Louis Whitfield, Antree Powell, Gertrude Dalton, Doris Dalton, John P. Wade, William M. Roe, John Gorman, William L. Gibson, Elliott Dexter, John J. Foley, O. J. Griffin, etc.

THE STROLLERS

By FREDERIC S. ISHAM,

Author of "Under the Rose"

Copyright, 1902, by THE BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"Too much excitement is dangerous,
is it?" he mumbled. "I am afraid there will be none at all. A stage struck young woman, a doll-like face probably, a milk and water performance!
Now, in the old days actors were artists. Yes, artists!" he repeated as if he had struck a chord that vibrated in his memory.

Arriving at the theater, he was surprised at the scene of animation—the line of carriages, the crowd about the doors and in the entrance hall. Evidently the city eagerly sought novelty,
and Barnes' company, offering new diversion after many weeks of opera,
drew a fair proportion of pleasure seekers to the portals of the drama. The noise of rattling wheels and the banging of carriage doors, the aspect of many fair ladies, irreproachably powdered, the confusion of voices from vendors hovering near the gallery entrance,
imparted a cosmopolitan atmosphere to
the surroundings.

"You'd think some well known player
was going to appear, wouldn't you?"
grumbled the marquis as he thrust his head out of his carriage. "Looks like it after all the Strand. And there's an orange girl, a dinky Peggy!"

"The vehicle of the nobleman drew up
before the brilliantly lighted entrance.
Minutely the marquis dismounted, assisted by the valet. Within he was met by a large director, who with the air of a Chesterfield bowed the people in and out.

"Your ticket, sir," said this courteous
individual, scraping unusually low.

The marquis waved his hand toward his man, and Francois produced the bits of pasteboard. Escorted to his box, the nobleman settled himself in an easy chair, after which he stared im-
pudently and inquisitively around him.

Having taken note of his surroundings to his satisfaction, the marquis at-length condescended to turn his eyeglass deliberately and quizzically to the stage. His sight was not the best,
and he gazed for some time before discerning a graceful figure and a pure,
oval face, with dark hair and eyes.

"Humph! Not a bad stage presence!"
he thought. "Probably plenty of beauty, with a paucity of talent! That's the way nowadays. The voice—why,
where have I heard it before? A beautiful voice! What melody, what power, what richness! And the face!"— Here he wiped the moisture from his glasses. "If the face is equal to the voice she has an unusual combination
in an artist."

Again he elevated the glass. Suddenly his attenuated frame straightened, his hand shook violently, and the glasses fell from his nerveless fingers.

"Impossible!" he murmured. But the melody of those tones continued to fill
upon his ears like a voice from the past.

When the curtain went down on the first act there was a storm of applause,
and Constance as Adrienne Leon-
vour, radiant in youth and the knowledge of success, was called out several times. In the loges all the ladies were pushed up, "a compliment to any player," said Straws. To the marquis
the ladies in the loges were only read nude of the fashionable dames with bare shoulders and glittering jewels in the side boxes of old Drury Lane leaning from their high tribunals to applaud the Adrienne of twenty years ago.

He did not sit in a theater in New Orleans now, but in London town, with a woman by his side who bent beneath
the storm of words she knew were directed at her.

They were applauding now, or was it but the mocking echo of the past? The curtain had descended, but went up again, and the actress stood with flowers showered around her. Save that she was in the springtime of life, while
the other had entered summer's season;
that her art was tender and romantic
rather than overwhelming and tragic,
she was the counterpart of the actress
he had deserted in London, a faithful
prototype, bearing the mother's eyes,
brow and features; a moving, living picture of the dead, as though the grave had rolled back its stone and she had stepped forth, young once more,
trusting and innocent.

Could it be possible it was but a likeness his imagination had converted into such vivid resemblance?

Overwrought and excitable, he did not dare remain for the latter portion of the drama. Better leave before the last act, he told himself, and, dazed by the reappearance of that vision, the old man fairly staggered from the box.
The curtain fell for the last time, and Barnes, with exultation, stood watching in the wings. She had triumphed,
his little girl; she had won the great,
generous heart of New Orleans. He clapped his hands furiously, joining in the evidences of approval, and, when the ovation finally ceased and she approached, the old manager was so overcome he had not a word to say. She looked at him questioning, and he who had always been her instructor folded her fondly to his breast.

"I owe it all to you," she whispered.
"Pooh!" he answered. "You stole fire
from heaven. I am but a theatrical,
bombastic, barnstorming Thespian."

"Would you spoil me?" she interrupted tenderly.

"You are your mother over again, my

dear! If she were only here now! But where is Saint-Prosper? He has not yet congratulated you? He, our good genius, whose generosity has made all this possible!" And Barnes half turned,
when she placed a detaining hand on
his arm.

"No, no!"

"Why, my dear, have you and he?"

"Is it not enough that you are pleased?" replied Constance hastily, with a glance so shining he forgot all further remonstrances.

"Pleased!" exclaimed Barnes. "Why,
I feel as gay as Momus! But we'll slug
Te Deum later at the festive board.
Go now and get ready!"

CHAPTER XXIV.

A SUPPER was given the company after the performance by the manager, to which representatives of the press—artful Barnes!—had been invited. Of all the merry evenings in the bohemian world that was one of the merriest. Next to the young girl sat the Count de Pro-prace, his breast covered with a double row of medals. Of the toasts drunk to Constance, the manager, Straws, etc.,
unfortunately no record remains.

So fancy must picture the devotion of the youth to his fair neighbor, the most superhuman pride of noisier Barnes,
the attention bestowed by Susan upon Saint-Prosper, while through his mind
wandered the words of a French song:

Adieu, le court, adieu les dames;
Adieu les ritus et les femmes.

Intermixed with this and refrain the soldier's thoughts reverted to the performance, and amid the chatter of Susan he reviewed again and again the details of that evening. Was this the young girl who played in schoolhouses,
luns or town halls, he had asked himself, seated in the rear of the theater?
When she won an ovation he had himself forgotten to applaud, but had sat
there looking from her to the auditors,
to whom she was now bound by ties of admiration and friendliness.

"Don't you like her?" a voice next to him had asked.

"Like her! He had looked at the man
blankly.

"Yes," he had replied.
Then the past had seemed to roll between them—the burning sands, the voices of the troops, the bugle call. In his brain wild thoughts had surged and flowed as they were surging and flowing now.

"Is he not handsome—Constance's
new admirer?" whispered Susan. "What can he be saying? She looks so pleased.
He is very rich, isn't he?"

"I don't know," answered Saint-Prosper brusquely.

Again the thoughts surged and surged and the past intruded itself. Reaching for his glass, he drank quickly.

"Don't you ever feel the effects of wine?" asked the young woman.

His glance chilled her, it seemed so strange and steady.

"I believe you are so—so strong you don't even notice it," added Susan,
with conviction. "But you don't have half as good a time."

"Perhaps I enjoy myself in my way,"
he answered.

"What is your way?" she asked quickly. "You don't appear to be wild by hilarious in your pleasures." And

"For once I want to be myself."

Susan's bright eyes rested on him en-ciously. "But we were speaking about the count and Constance. Don't you think it would be a good match?" she continued, with enthusiasm. "Alas, my titled admirer got no further than the beginning! But men are deceivers ever.
When they do reach the Song of Solomon they pass on to Exodus."

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before the birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had the pictures of our children, you could see at a glance that the last one is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all.
My wife thinks Mother's Friend is the greatest
and grandest
remedy in the world for expectant mothers."
Written by a Kentucky Attorney-at-Law.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to childbirth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruined
throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child.
The patient is kept in a strong, healthy
condition, which the child also inherits.
Mother's Friend takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards
off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

THE TEMPERANCE LECTURE.

There was only a small crowd at the Broadway Methodist church last night to hear Mrs. Francis Beauchamp, the temperance lecturer and president of the state W. O. T. U. She delivered a powerful lecture which was greatly enjoyed by her auditors.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.

Clarksville, Tenn., Feb. 2.—Receipts last week were four hogheads.
There were no public offerings on the breaks, but 682 hogheads were sold privately, which, with a lap from last week of 278 hogheads, make sales of 960 hogheads for the week. A large order has entered our market,
and since then there has been more activity, with some improvements in prices, particularly on the kinds that there was previously no special demand
for.

Week before last there was a good season for handling tobacco in the barns, and a good deal was gotten down and put into bulk. Since then we have had some very cold weather
that has restricted free deliveries, consequently the sales continue light at the loose tobacco warehouses. We quote: Low lugs, $3.50 to $4; common lugs, $1 to $4.50; medium lugs, $4.50 to $5; good lugs, $5.25 to $5.75; low leaf, $1.75 to $5.25; common leaf, $5.50 to $6.25; medium leaf, $6.50 to $7.50; good leaf, $7.50 to $85.0; fine leaf, none offered; selections, none offered.

CURED LUMBAGO.

A. B. Gauman, Chicago, writes
March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times
and tried one physician after another;
then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers."

SAUNDERS A. FOWLER,
Local Observer

Captain Henry Smith and family have returned from Chicago where they had been on a week's visit.

There are enough towboats here to make a good size fleet, all waiting for the ice to run out so the ties and other cargoes and tows can be taken to Joplin and to other points for shipment.

The following are a few of the boats tied up here on account of the ice: Wilford, Inverness, Richardson, Ingleside, Summers, Henrietta, Russell Lord, Pavonia, Jim Duffey and the Evansville packets.

Several of the towboats are in Cumberland river unable to come down until the ice thins out. It is thought that they will attempt it today or tonight if the situation remains unchanged and the warm weather continues.

The I. N. Hook is laying here with a tow waiting for the ice to run out and as soon as Inspectors Green and Harris of Nashville, who are due here tonight, arrive will be inspected. She is scheduled for inspection tomorrow and on Wednesday the Dick Fowler will be inspected.

The ice was not running so heavy in the Ohio this morning and about one-third has disappeared since night. The moderation of the weather will probably serve to melt a great deal of the ice coming down and unless a freeze sets in again, the outlook is encouraging. It will take but few days to rot the ice out with the present temperature and river men were a little hopeful today.

NOTHING FOUND

WHEN FEDERAL OFFICERS SEARCHED A PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Hubbard is still working on the counterfeiting case and hopes to locate the man who is making the bogus bills.

Last week a photographer named Boatwright, who runs a store fifteen miles from Murray, was visited and a search of his photograph gallery made by federal secret service men for plates supposed to be hid there, but they were not found.

The secret service men are still working on the case and hope to secure some new clue which may lead to the discovery of the man who did the work.
